

DENOUNCES WAY A SLAYER CAN GET EASY PRISON TERM

Buffalo Official Calls for Investigation at Meeting of Magistrates of State.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Feb. 7.—At the Annual Conference this morning of the New York State Association of Magistrates, which was begun yesterday at the Hotel Ten Eck, a committee was appointed to meet with a similar committee of the State Association of District Attorneys scheduled to meet here tomorrow to consider methods and measures to combat the State-wide crime waves. This was done after an address by District Attorney Guy B. Moore of Buffalo, in which he made a strenuous attack on the indeterminate sentence section of the Penal Law and called for an investigation of the wide latitude given to courts to issue permits to carry concealed weapons. He said that his own city, Buffalo, was like an armed camp, nearly every other citizen carried a gun.

"Take the crime of second degree murder," he said. "The law provides that punishment for this offense shall be from twenty years to life imprisonment. Under the indeterminate sentence provisions the twenty years is cut to ten and with compensation and computation for good behavior this is cut to seven and one-half years. Think of giving a man only seven and a half years for deliberately killing another human being."

He also attacked that provision of the law which permits Judges to put old offenders on probation, saying that a man convicted of his twentieth felony might be placed on probation. Chief Justice Frederic Kernochan of the Court of Special Sessions said: "As a matter of fact very few permits are issued for the possession of a pistol in a home, and none are being issued, I understand, to carry the revolver in the street. I believe we might recommend placing the authority to issue permits with the Police Commissioners and other peace officers and define to whom such privilege may be granted."

"Some members of the Legislature seek to repeal the Sullivan law and give every one the right to arm. This seems to me to be entirely wrong. Our efforts should be directed at the restriction of the practice of carrying guns and not at extending it."

WEDDING HASTENED AS BUSINESS CALLS GROOM TO AFRICA

Miss Miller Bride of George Francis Train—Couple Sail To-Day for Europe.

When the Cunarder Aquitania sailed for Europe to-day she had aboard a bridal couple who, had they not been married yesterday, would have been separated by this sailing. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Train, he a grandson of the well-remembered "Citizen" George Francis Train, and she a daughter of the former President of the Borough of the Bronx and Mrs. Cyrus Miller.

Mr. Train and Miss Gertrude Allan Miller had made all their arrangements for a wedding in the autumn, but, unexpectedly, he was ordered to South Africa on a business journey which would last a year, and it was decided to have the wedding forthwith. So it was solemnized yesterday morning at the Little Church Around the Corner, and there was a wedding breakfast afterward. Now the bride and groom will have a year's honeymoon in Africa, and on their return will make their home at No. 706 West End Avenue.

Mrs. Train is a graduate of Barnard College, class of 1919. Mr. Train was born here and graduated from Yale in 1915. He served in the war as Captain with the 301st Tank Battalion of the A. E. F.

WOMAN RAISES "THIEF" CRY AND BOYS CATCH HIM

Alleged Burglar Found Hiding After Long Pursuit by Youngsters.

A plucky woman and a crowd of small boys of her neighborhood caused the arrest and the arraignment to-day in Washington Heights Court of Morris Selden, a fleet-footed driver of No. 145 West 52d Street, on the charge of entering and robbing the apartment of Mrs. Jennie Sadowsky, on the third floor of No. 112 West 114th Street.

The courageous woman, who was also quick of wit, was Mrs. Sattie Kalb, an apartment neighbor of Mrs. Sadowsky. Incidentally, this was the third time Mrs. Sadowsky's apartment had been robbed within a year. The cigar store she and her husband conduct at No. 62 Lenox Avenue has been robbed twice in the same period. As the Sadowskys are at their store all day, her fellow tenants in the apartment house keep an eye on her rooms there, especially since the burglaries. Mrs. Kalb heard some one in the Sadowsky apartment yesterday afternoon and opened her door to see a man coming out with a suit case. She demanded to know what he was doing and then grabbed him by the collar. He broke away and darted down the stairs.

Then Mrs. Kalb went to the window, waited until the men emerged from the building and set up a cry of "Stop thief!" pointing to him. The small boys of the neighborhood took up the cry and set out after the fugitive. He ran to an apartment house at No. 67 Lenox Avenue and hid. A call had been sent to the West 123d Street Station and Patrolman Kelly came on the scene in a side car.

By this time a crowd had collected in front of the Lenox Avenue house and Kelly was told of the man hiding there. He went in and found Selden crouched in the rear hallway. The suit case was found on the fourth floor. It contained four suits of clothes from Mrs. Sadowsky's apartment.

A search of Selden's rooms disclosed a quantity of jewelry and women's clothing, valued at about $5,000.

In a dark hallway at No. 13 Stanton Street, yesterday afternoon, Edward McCabe, twenty-six, of No. 28

East 127th Street, encountered two thugs, one of whom shot him in the leg, and when he fell, took $136 from his pocket. McCabe had been making collections for the Borden Farm Products Company. As the thugs fled, McCabe limped to a drug store in the building. Dr. Brown took him to Gouverneur Hospital.

It is believed the thugs are those who at noon held up and robbed two employees at the Sheffield Farms milk station, No. 282 Avenue B, of $730.

ANDREW CONE DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

Andrew Cone, founder and President of the Andrew Cone General Advertising Agency, died of pneumonia yesterday in his home in East Front Street, Red Bank, N. J. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock in his home. He leaves two brothers, Edward S. of Cone, Hunton & Woodman, and Frederick, Treasurer of the advertising agency.

The French Millinery Salon

(on the Third Floor)

is now displaying a new and most interesting collection of

Hats for Early Spring

—a collection which includes many recent arrivals from Paris (creations of the most prominent modistes in that great center of fashion) as well as a number of clever originalities and adaptations evolved in the ateliers of B. Altman & Co.

The prices are unusually attractive

The Hosiery Department has assembled for the rapidly-approaching Spring season a very large assortment of

Women's Hosiery

in silk, wool, lisle and cotton, and in every style and weight for which there will be a demand. Included are the following moderately-priced items in

Women's Silk Hosiery

in black, white and African brown; with lisle tops and soles . . . per pair $1.75

All silk; in black, white and the new colors, per pair . . . $2.95, 3.50 and upward

(First Floor)

The New Assortments of American-made Lingerie

introduce many interesting novelties, in style as well as material.

In addition to the dainty underthings composed of lingerie fabrics, there are fascinating garments fashioned of a new silk-and-cotton crepe plissé and trimmed with real filet lace; and others developed in silk, chiffon georgette and other favored textiles.

Bridal sets, trousseaux and individual garments of unusual fineness may be obtained from stock or made to special order. The quality of material and workmanship, in either case, leaves nothing to be desired.

Ready-to-wear Lingerie, of the finer type, is in regular stock at these prices:

|------------------------|-----------------|
| Nightrobes | $2.95 to 37.50 |
| Chemises | 3.75 to 23.50 |
| Combinations | 3.50 to 26.50 |
| Pajamas | 2.50 to 7.90 |
| Princess Slips | 4.50 to 45.00 |
| Drawers | 2.50 to 14.00 |
| Petticoats | 5.90 to 31.50 |

There are, of course, many prices lower than these.
